A Brief Report On one week FDP
On
"Intellectual Property Rights" organised by IQAC
Patharkandi College, Dist. Karimganj

In Collaboration with IQAC, Patharkandi College, Patharkandi, E & ICT Academy, Indian Institute of Technology, Guwahati hosted a seven-days faculty development programme on Intellectual Property Rights for academicians which was started from 25th April- 01 May, 2022. The programme was in online mode. There were 37 participants in the programme.

IPR focuses on defending both tangible and intangible property. It offers incentives and acknowledgement to contributors for their research designs, discoveries, inventions, etc. IPR protection is important for establishing a little technological advantage for generating larger economic growth in a market-driven economy.

Aim: The primary goal of FDP is to raise awareness of the issues surrounding intellectual property rights, which have become particularly important for all spheres of socioeconomic development. The program's main objective was to spread fundamental knowledge and awareness of intellectual property rights, from invention through commercialization. It helps to comprehend the specific requirements for patentability and the practical aspects of the patent.

FDP Highlights:

1. Intellectual Property Rights and its protection
2. Basic understanding of the IPR
3. Patents, Copyrights and Trademark criteria
4. Publication of paper in journals by academicians and Researcher

Dr. Amarendranath Choudhury, Assistant Professor, Deptt. of Zoology IQAC Coordinator, Patharkandi College gave the keynote speech. He gave a succinct introduction of our college before introducing the participants. Dr. Monjurul Hoque, Principal, Patharkandi College delivered the presidential address and gave a cordial welcome to the participants and the resource persons. The FDP was concluded with distribution of certificates to the participants. The programme schedule of the FDP has been attached herewith .
