PATHARKANDI COLLEGE, PATHARKANDI

Event: Quiz Competition

Aims and Objectives

The “National Voters’ Day” was organized with an aim to aware the students about one of the most important fundamental rights that each and every individual of this nation possesses is the right to cast their valuable votes. The students were encouraged to enroll themselves in the electoral roll who have attained the age of 18 and above. The young generations are energetic and can think logical and thus they were also enlightened with the fact that they should not limit themselves in casting their own votes only but rather being educated, they must aware and encourage the ignorant people of the society to cast their votes. The event was organized as per the instructions of Government of Assam following all covid protocols.
