A substantial number of female students (around 100) and faculties of our college have attended and actively participated in the awareness programme. The aim of such an initiative was to enlighten the female students of Patharkandi College about the necessity to achieve equality in all spheres of life, to illuminate them regarding the importance of education and healthy lifestyle for their better future, to enrich the students with the knowledge of techniques related to maintenance of hygiene in college campus.

The awareness programme was inaugurated by the Chairperson of Women Cell, Dr. Monjurul Hoque, Principal, Patharkandi College and it was embellished by the esteemed presence of Dr. Jayashree Chakrabarty, Principal, Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya Mahavidyalaya, Erailigool, Karimganj as the Chief Guest for the session and Dr. Pradip Dey, General Physician and SDMO, Block Hospital, Patharkandi as the Guest of Honour and Speaker. The topic on which the Chief Guest reviewed and discussed was, "Women and the importance of education in their lives". Valuable insights could be gained from the lecture as she elaborated on how to cope up with personal and professional life within the hectic schedule of a working woman and also the necessity to emphasize on Education and self-dependence in the life of a woman. In the second half of the session, Dr. Dey shared a detailed idea on the topic, "Maintenance of health and hygiene in college campus".
