

REPORT ON CELEBRATION OF
INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY
8TH MARCH, 2022

ORGANIZED BY WOMEN CELL
IN ASSOCIATION WITH NSS UNIT,
PATHARKANDI COLLEGE

- Aims and objectives:

International Women's Day celebrates the fact that women all around the world are united and have been fighting to create an equal platform for all, irrespective of gender discrimination. To bring this awareness about the need for breaking gender inequalities in college campus, to convey significant information about the scholarships and opportunities available for female students and faculties, and to encourage the students to explore different career options, the women cell, Patharkandi College decided to organize a programme on the occasion of International Women's Day, 2022 at 11:00 am. Over 200 students, both male and female, including the faculty members and the chairperson, have taken active part in this celebration.

- Details of the event:

The programme was hosted by Satarupa Deb, Convener, Women cell, and inaugurated by the Chairperson, Dr. Monjurul Hoque, Principal, Patharkandi College. The occasion was graced by the esteemed presence of Advocate Hasina Rahman Choudhury, District Bar Association, Karimganj, as the Guest of Honor cum Speaker. Our martial art expert, Md. Abu Ubaida Tapadar, who voluntarily trained our female students for the one-week self defense programme, was also invited as a guest for the celebration. The attendees were exquisitely welcomed by the co-ordinator of the programme, K. Tamna Singha, Member of Women Cell.

The speaker reviewed and discussed in detail on the topic, "Rights and responsibilities of women in the society", where she elaborated on the history of women empowerment in India as well as the legal advantages of women according to the constitution. The talk was followed by a mesmerizing poem recited by Dr. Munmi Saikia, Head, Department of Mathematics, relating to the theme for this year's Women Day celebration, "Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow". Dr. Dimpri Paul, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Physics presented a seminar on, "Role of sanitation in the life of a woman", where she emphasized on the requirements of facilities in the college campus for the well-being and convenience of the female students. Mrs. Sumita Sinha, Head, Department of History, spoke on the scholarships and opportunities for undergraduate female students.

In the second half of the session, a video clip on the moments captured during the self-defense training classes was presented by Sweetly Nath Barbhuiya, Co-convener of Women Cell, followed by handing over a token of appreciation for his outstanding contribution and efforts to our self-defense expert by Principal Sir. Certificate for participation were handed out to those female students (around 267 out of 390 enrolled) who could secure at least 75% attendance in the training classes. A valuable and inspiring speech was delivered by Dr. Md. Imam Uddin Ansari, Programme Officer, NSS Unit, Patharkandi College, relating to the theme of the celebration. He listed out all the important aspects in the career development of women. Two short inspirational speeches were also orated by students of B.A. 3rd Semester. Lipika Sinha and Shilpa Acharjee, students of Patharkandi College, were presented a token of appreciation separately by our Principal Sir, for their district level performance in singing competition and representing the college in various cultural activities.

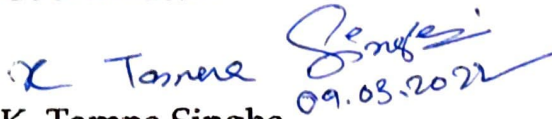

The programme was gracefully concluded by a note of gratitude by K. Tamna Singha and harmoniously ended with the National Anthem. All the deliberations made by the speakers were valuable enough to fulfill the aim of the gathering and both the students and the faculties were also benefitted from the knowledge imparted to them during the interaction.
